

Final programme for meeting on Echinococcus multilocularis with special reference to the present Swedish situation

Time: 10.00-17.00

Date: 1st April 2011

Place: National Veterinary Institute, Uppsala

Programme

09.30-10.00	Coffee
10.00-10.10	Welcome and aim of this meeting	Ann Lindberg/ Maria Cedersmyg
10.10-10.30	AE in humans, diagnosis, treatment , prognosis. What are the expected risks for humans in the future in Sweden and in other European countries	Peter Deplazes/ Daniel Hegglin
10.30-10.50	Ecology of EM in Europe	Peter Deplazes
10.50-11.10	The present Swedish situation	Helen Wahlström
11.10-12.30	Discussion on the expected ecology and spread of EM in Sweden, including discussion on the definitive and intermediate hosts and knowledge from modelling
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13.30-13.50	Sampling strategies with special reference to the Swedish situation.	Frans Conraths
13.50-15.00	Discussion on surveillance, tests, costs for tests, sampling strategy, sampled population. Is EM just newly detected not newly introduced? Is it possible to document free areas?
15.00-15.15	Coffee
15.15-15.35	Practical experience of baiting, could eradication by baiting be done in Sweden?	Daniel Hegglin
15.35-17.00	Discussion, what actions can/shall be taken in Sweden? Why shall actions be taken?	